WEST VIRGINIA FIGHTING ENDS WHEN TROOPS ARRIVE

Miners' Army Hides Weapons Before Surrendering to U. S. Soldiers

Washington, Sept. 4.—Reporting "all quiet" in the West Virginia mine fields, Bri. Gen. H. H. Bandholtz, commanding the Federal troops, tonight informed the War Department that if the situation remained the same tomorrow he would recommend the immediate return, at least, of the Twenty-sixth Infantry to its home station, Camp Dix, N. J.

Madison, W. Va., Sept. 4.—Fighting between armed bands and Logan County authorities along the Boone-Logan County line has ceased, said Col. C. A. Martin, commander of Federal troops in the Little Coal River Valley, after a tour of inspection today.

When he returned to Madison, the Colonel made the following statement: "All fighting has stopped and there are few miners left in the region."

Colonel Martin added that soldiers of the Nineteenth Infantry had displaced all armed men on the Boone County side and in the narrow strip of Logan County on the east of Spruce Fork Ridge, while troops moving forward from Logan had replaced State police, county deputies and volunteers on the summit and western slope of the ridge. Contact between the occupying forces on either side had been established, he said.

To Hunt for Dead and Wounded
During his tour today, Colonel Martin said he was told by some of the men that there were a number of bodies and some wounded in the hills. He announced that a searching party of soldiers would be sent to investigate tomorrow.

Shortly after the Colonel's return from last week's troubled area, a special train comprising eight coaches carrying 400 men arrived here from the Spruce Fork Ridge region. Despite the fact that they had been warned before leaving the hills that they would be searched when they arrived in Madison, 181 rifles, 80 pistols and a large quantity of ammunition was taken from them here, officers who conducted the search said.

As a number of the men were unarmed when they assembled for the journey here, soldiers tomorrow will be sent into the hills to look for rifles and ammunition which the military authorities believe may have been searched.

Three hundred soldiers of the Twenty-sixth Infantry, who came from Camp Dix, New Jersey, arrived here just before daybreak. They were dispatched immediately to the neighborhood of Blair, beyond Sharples, a region in which heavy exchanges between forces of men armed with rifles have been reported. It was expected that troops of the Nineteenth Infantry, encamped here would join forces with those of the other regiment in the early morning and the combined force would then set out for the mountains to police the district.

Soldiers today were in control of the entire valley from Madison to Blair. Regulars, are located between these two towns and the villages of Clothier, Jeffery and Sharples.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT RESULTS IN DENVER WILSON'S DEATH

Denver Wilson, 19 year-old son of Mr. W. L. Wilson, of near Dan Station, this county, was the victim of the most peculiar accident heard of in this section in recent years. While carrying a 10-gallon stone jar through the kitchen at his home, Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock, he caught his foot on a gallon jug of molasses and fell breaking the jar in many pieces.

An eight-inch sliver with jagged edges penetrated his neck just under the chin and thence downward, stripping off the flesh, tearing many blood vessels and leaving the jugular vein bare. Preparations were at once made to take him to the Owensboro City Hospital but soon after being placed in an automobile he began coughing up blood and soon expired. He was conscious during the entire four hours between the accident and his death.

He was an intelligent, industrious and popular young man, and was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America and the United Mine Workers of America. By occupation he was a farmer and miner. He had never been married.

The remains were laid to rest at 3 p. m., Sunday, in Leach graveyard, near Rosine, in the presence of a large congregation of sorrowing relatives and friends.

WHITE MAY GIVE UP CHAIRMANSHIP

Washington, D. C., Aug. 31.—An early change in the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee is forecast. George White, of Marietta, Ohio, the present national chairman, who piloted the Democratic ship through the troubled seas last year, is about ready to throw up his job as skipper.

He is now seriously considering the issuance of a call to the Democratic national committee to meet here in special session in October, in order that it may receive his resignation from the national chairmanship and proceed to the election of his successor. Unless his plans are changed the call will go out within the next week or two.

ERIN REJECTS LATEST OFFER BY BRITISH

Plan Would Mean Split Ireland Instead of Dominion Status, Dail Says

London, Sept. 4.—The reply of the Irish Republican Parliament to Prime Minister David Lloyd George's proposals for settlement of the Irish question on the ground that they are not based on a domination status for Ireland. It leaves the way open for further investigations, however, by offering at once to appoint plenipotentiaries on the basis of the principle of government by consent of the government.

The reply, signed by Eamonn de Valera, which was made public in London and Dublin simultaneously today, had been preceded in the British and Irish press by a number of apparently inspired statements that it would create a very grave situation. Perusal of the reply, however, affords little reason to fear immediate breakdown of the negotiations unless the Cabinet Council, meeting Wednesday to consider it, should decide to impose a time limit within which Ireland must accept or reject the government proposals.

Divided Ireland Feared

The reply shows that Mr. de Valera and the Dail Eireann have not receded in the slightest from the position formerly adopted. It emphasizes that the British Government's proposals are not an invitation to enter into a free and willing partnership with the nations of the British Commonwealth, but that on the contrary the conditions Mr. Lloyd George seeks to impose would divide Ireland into two artificial and mutually destructive states.

It insists that the plenipotentiaries must enter a conference untrammelled by any conditions, but with that proviso, says that the Dail Eireann is ready to appoint plenipotentiaries.

Except that Mr. de Valera seems to ignore the Prime Minister's warning of danger in continued delay, the position is much the same as on the occasion of the last exchange of letters, and almost certainly there will be a further exchange before a real crisis arises.

MORROW ESCAPES FROM BURNING BED

Gov. Edwin P. Morrow escaped uninjured when his bed in The Seelbach caught fire at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, but did not escape being the central figure in a scene of turmoil and excitement.

When firemen, answering an alarm, came before the hotel, they saw the Governor standing on a second-floor balcony, looking down over the crowd which was gathering below. He was dressed in his pajamas.

The pillow and mattress from the bed was thrown from a window, and the fire was extinguished after it had caused a loss of about $100.

The fire started from a cigarette in the hands of the Governor, who is devoted to smoking in bed, it was said. He dozed off and awoke to find the bed ablaze, Governor Morrow said, and gave the alarm. After the fire the Chief Executive returned to Frankfort. He denied the story of Patrick Flynn, baggage-man, who said he carried the Governor from the smoke-filled room. —Louisville Times.

COUNTY AND QUAR- TERLY COURTS

Very little business of importance was transacted in Judge Cook's tribunals Monday, it being found necessary to continue practically all the cases called. In County Court the will of the late Mrs. Annie D. Graham was probated. By its provisions the heirs of Maggie Dorris were bequeathed $5.00 and the remainder of decedent's estate, consisting of 50 acres of land, valued at $1000, and household and personal belongings, valued at $300, was given to her husband, John M. Graham, who was denominated Executor, without bond.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Blankenship and Miss Lella Glenn spent the week-end camping at Taylor's Lake.

ANOTHER BOOTLEGGER CAUGHT WITH THE GOODS

Tom Hines, of Rosine, and His 'Shine-Laden "Lizzie" Came To Grief at Olaton

Tom Hines, of Rosine, was arrested at Olaton Sunday afternoon by Constable Robert Quissenberry on a charge of having in his possession for sale, and unlawfully transporting intoxicating liquor. His automobile was also taken. About three pints of "white lightning" were found, one pint being secreted in Hines' trousers' leg. Hines' son, Roy, was with him at the time, but escaped when the officer's revolver failed to fire promptly. A number of shots were fired after young Hines, but he made a get-away. However he is under bond on a similar charge and will undoubtedly soon be rounded up. The car captured is the same one confiscated and sold recently in the similar prosecution against Roy Hines, it having been bought by the elder Hines. It is reported that the two Hines' have been peddling their wares for sometime at various public gatherings and were at Olaton for the purpose of breaking the "drouth" at a ball game. The prisoner was immediately brought to Hartford and lodged in jail.

GRAND JURY TO PROBE PARDONING OF FRANK BLAIR

Franklin Inquisitorial Body To Investigate Pardon of Virgil Lucas

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 5.—Judge Robert L. Stout of the Franklin Circuit Court today charged the grand jury to investigate the pardoning of Frank Blair June 3, 1921, and Virgil Lucas, April 1, 1920.

Judge Stout said: "The first one of these is the case of the now notorious gentleman named Blair. Blair, as I understand it, held up the establishment of one Hendricks in Louisville, who had formerly been captain of police. He was convicted of that robbery and sent to the penitentiary here to serve five years.

"Blair seems to have been a criminal with a record, according to the newspapers. It is charged that after the name of this man Blair upon the prison records was noted in red ink; 'Do not release this man until the authorities of Indianapolis are notified. He stands there indicted with the theft of some $50,000 in bonds.' This was substantially as I recall.

"There was a second notice calling the attention of prison officials to the fact that he was further wanted by the Federal authorities at Evansville, Ind.

Was Aided By Prominent Man
"He apparently had no standing outside the underworld and its dealings. No newspaper ever said he was a man of any personal influence. Yet this man in the absence of the warden has been granted a pardon and the pardon was taken by a very prominent citizen to the prison and this remarkable man Blair put into an auto and taken by the prominent citizen to a station and there put on a northbound L. & N. train for Cincinnati."

"Then Mr. Blair makes his exit. No more is seen or heard of him.

Sinister Influences Felt
"Now, I submit, gentlemen, that if these are facts sinister influences have been at work on the Chief Executive of this State. I mention that because this same press reports the Chief Executive as saying when the bright light of publicity broke upon the incident that he was sorry that he had granted this pardon and that he had made a mistake. If he made a mistake, then that mistake must have been of issuing a pardon to which a prisoner was not entitled. It must have been a mistake of not personally investigating the record of Blair, the convict, or permitting some so-called friend to overpersuade him.

"I may be permitted here to say that I do not believe the Governor of Kentucky acted otherwise than as an imprudent official who permitted himself to be imposed upon by his more prudent associates calling themselves his friends.

"Certainly this bald statement, made and never denied, smacks very strongly of exceeding dubious methods in securing Mr. Blair's pardon."

Auto Again Figures

As to the Lucas case, the young man sentenced for life for killing William Riley in this county, Judge Stout said: "Mr. Bradley, the Commonwealth's Attorney, has some information as to that matter which I do not deem it advisable at this time to give you and let witnesses in that case have any notice. But that pardon seems to have been procured around the first day of April 1920. Newspapers say that a prominent Democratic politician procured this pardon, took the pardon to the prison, got the young man into an automobile and took him away.

"The country seems to be getting quite full of philanthropists of this kind. I don't know when I have heard of men getting pardons for people they don't know, never have heard of, and then driving in high-powered cars to the prison and taking them away.

"You ought to take up these cases and do the very best you can with the full power of the Commonwealth at your back. I believe that every good citizen of the Commonwealth, irrespective of politics, will sustain you in your efforts to get at the bottom of these matters."

WARNING GIVEN THOSE WHO SCOFF AT DRY LAW

Judicial Section of American Bar Association Fears Harvest of Anarchy

Cincinnati, Aug. 31.—Commercial leaders who scoff at the federal prohibition law are aiding the cause of anarchy and promoting mob violence, robbery and homicide, it was declared today in a warning issued to the American people by the judicial section of the American Bar association.

"The people of the United States have undertaken to suppress the age long evil of the liquor traffic," the statement, signed by Judge Charles A. Woods, of South Carolina, chairman of the section, said, "When, for the gratification of their appetites, lawyers, bankers, merchants and manufacturers, and social leaders, both men and women, scoff at this law, or any other law, they are aiding the cause of anarchy and promoting mob violence, robbery and homicide."

"They are sowing dragon's teeth and they need not be surprised when they find that no judicial or police authority can save our country or humanity from reaping the harvest."

Attorney General Speaks

Theories of political philosophy now "advanced by those who either violate law or sympathize with law violators" in industrial conflicts, agitation to upset American forms of government, and against enforcement of prohibition statutes are the greatest forces at work in the United States to undermine respect for the law, Attorney General Daugherty declared today in an address before the American and Ohio Bar associations.

Arguing equally against sentiment that regards a convicted I. W. W. as a "hero of conscience," and "political prisoner," that holds a hoodlum an exponent of "personal liberty," and sets up the slogan of "human rights against property rights" in employment disputes, Mr. Daugherty asserted fallacy and danger lay in all.

Hits "Personal Liberty"

The attorney general, in his address, which was his first since assuming office, suggested a method of informing public opinion by semi-governmental means to obviate industrial conflicts, but advocated complete disregard for the theories advanced in the two other fields. He declared the demand for "personal liberty" in prohibition enforcement had been "advanced in the past by every champion of lawlessness who has sought excuse for unlawful conduct."

Only One Course of Conduct

Assaults upon the prohibition amendment and laws, he continued, involved an "erroneous theory of personal liberty under our constitutional system."

"They may still debate the wisdom of the law," he asserted, "but there is only one course of conduct and that is obedience to the law while it exists."

"The constitutional safeguards of minorities in this republic leaves no excuse for any person to hold its laws in contempt," he said in discussing this point. "Those who do not believe in our government and the enforcement of our laws should go to a country which gives them their peculiar liberty."

"My duty is clear. As long as I am responsible head of the department of justice the law will be enforced with all the power possessed by the government which I am at liberty to call to my command."

A report introduced by Elihu Root, chairman of the legal education section, in the sections' session which aroused considerable controversy over the requirements for admission to the bar, was adopted. It will be presented to the association tomorrow. It recommends two years' college and three years' law schooling to admit to the bar, in schools maintaining certain standards.

JILLSON PRAISED BY STATE BOARD OF CORRECTIONS

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 1.—The State Board of Charities and Corrections issued a statement Wednesday condemning the attacks upon Dr. Walter J. Jillson, superintendent of the Central State Hospital at Lakeland, and praising his ability.

The board declared that the propaganda spread and charges preferred against Doctor Jillson was an attempt to pillory him by discharged and disloyal employees seeking revenge through misuse of laws enacted for the protection of the public.

The board's statement, addressed to the people of Kentucky, declares that the board does not propose to be stampeded into destroying the administration of the hospital, which had made many improvements.

U. S. AND TOKIO COMPRO- MISING ROW OVER YAP

Mandate Still at Issue, But American State Department Expects Accord

Tokio, Aug. 31.—The Japanese Foreign Office has received advices, according to Tokio newspapers today, indicating that the points at issue between Japan and the United States over control of the Island of Yap would be settled soon on the following basis:

First—The United States would recognize the Japanese mandate over the island.

Second—The United States would control the cable between the islands of Yap and Guam.

Third—The cable connecting Japan, Yap and Menado, Holland, would be settled on a basis of recognition of Holland's rights therein.

The Cabinet yesterday decided on an outline of Japan's policy at Washington, the Nicho Nichi says, whereby Japan will insist "to the last" on exclusion from the agenda of the following accomplished facts: Four Points At Issue

First—The Kwang-Tung leased territory.

Second—Operation of the South Manchurian Railway.

Third—Kiao-Chau, which will be returned to China, according to previous declarations.

Fourth—The question of Yap.

This outline will be submitted to the Diplomatic Advisory Council.

The Chigal-Shogyo Shimpo thinks it is almost certain that China will endeavor to reopen the twenty-one demands questions and that the Hara Government will find it difficult to oppose such a move because it is on record as against the Japanese policy behind the twenty-one demands.

It also believes Japan will have difficulty in inducing the Powers participating in the Washington conference to refrain from discussing matters solely affecting particular Powers and accomplished facts in general.

Business Leaders Plan Trip

Former Minister Uchida was quoted today by Tokio newspapers as saying that the negotiations over the question of the Island of Yap were nearing a satisfactory conclusion.

The newspapers also reported that Viscount Shibusawa, president of the American-Japanese Association and a prominent Tokio banker, was planning, with other Japanese business men, to visit the United States soon with the object of improving business relations between the two countries.

At the same time today the Japanese Cabinet discussed the subject of armament restriction and worked on the Japanese programme to be presented at the conference on disarmament and Far Eastern questions at Washington.

WILDFIRE AGAIN THREATENS LEAF

With the much dreaded wildfire, which did so much damage to tobacco in the Green river district last year, again making its appearance throughout the county and district and spreading with rather alarming rapidity, farmers are cutting their tobacco rather green in some parts of the county in order to save it if possible from the disease.

About one-fourth of the tobacco crop in the county has already been cut. Ordinarily the tobacco cutting season does not begin until September and cutting reaches full proportions only about the middle of the month.

However, as wildfire has appeared in many fields and seems to be spreading many farmers are cutting their tobacco two-thirds green, preferring to run the risk of having it cure up dark rather than destroyed entirely by the disease. The disease does not seem to be spreading so quickly and generally as last year, and it is not believed that the damage from it will reach the large proportions of that incurred last year. If there is not too much rain during the next week or ten days farmers hope that the loss from the disease will not be very great. It is generally believed that rainy weather is favorable to the spread of the disease. Others maintain, however, that it is spread by a small black fly which inoculates the leaf of the tobacco with a deadly poison.

While the tobacco acreage is tobacco is at present the best in years and if conditions are favorable for its ripening without too much wildfire it will be one of the best crops ever grown in this section.

Weather conditions are favorable

GREAT BRITAIN'S

POPULATION GAINS

London, Aug. 27.—The population of England, Wales and Scotland according to the new census made public this week is 42,767,530 as against 40,831,396 in 1911, representing an increase of 1,936,134 or 4.7 per cent.Greater London's population is 7,476,168, an increase of 3.1 per cent. By countries the population is:
England 35,678,530; Wales 2-206,712; Scotland 4,882,288.The census shows that there are 20,430,623 males and 22,336,907 females, an increase of 676,176 males and 1,259,958 females.There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

ENJOYABLE BIRTHDAY PARTY

The celebration of the seventh birthday of James Lester Fulkerson at the hospitable home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fulkerson, on last Thursday afternoon, was a most enjoyable occasion, long to be remembered by the little folks present.Eight couples, sitting as quiet as mice in the parlor, awaited the coming of the little host, to whom this was to be a glad surprise, made a charming picture.When James Lester finally walked in, with a bewildered look on his face, he was greeted with shouts of laughter and the merrymaking began. Each little guest brought a present which was duly admired and appreciated. The children then repaired to the yard where many games, old to the grown-ups, but ever new to the young, were highly enjoyed.At four o'clock they were called to the dining-room which was beautifully lighted and decorated.
The long table was most attractive with flowers, glass and china. A large birthday cake, with seven candles, graced the center of the table and there were dainty favors at each plate. Ice cream and cake were served by the hostess, assisted by her cousin, Mrs. John Lindley.The guests were little Misses Virginia Davis, of Centertown, Irene Cox Birkhead, Louise Westerfield,
Hettie Riley Carson, Lois Jane Riley
Lula D. Martin, Winnie Cook and Ruth Campbell; Masters Edward Turley, of Chicago, Maxwell Davis, of Centertown, Charles Campbell,
Charles Baize, Roy V. Foreman, Carlisle Gillespie, Hugh Milton and James Lester Fulkerson.MAKING CHRISTIAN COUNTY SAFE FOR DEMOCRACYThe result of last Saturday's primary is a sad reflection upon the wisdom of Christian county Republicans. All colored candidates were unmercifully slaughtered.Sad also is the fact that the Republican State Central Committee saw fit to interfere in our local affairs, giving aid and comfort to the unwise determination to defeat colored men at all hazards. Verily if Christian county has been made "safe for democracy" some of our Republican leaders of the county and state must bear the responsibility.—The New Age (Colored.)DEATH TOLL OF 1,000 FEARED IN INDIA RIOTSLondon, Aug. 25.—More than 1-000 lives, it is feared, have been lost in the rioting in the Malabar District of British India, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Bombay received today. Anxiety is felt for the English women and children in the outlying districts.WHITE'S SLAYER IS GIVEN LIFE SENTENCEVerdict in John Bailey Case
Returned Soon After Court
ConvenesMt. Vernon, Ky., Aug. 31.—John Bailey was found guilty of a charge of murdering Beverly White at Heidrick Station, Knox County,
April 7, by a jury in the Rockcastle Court in a verdict returned at 9:55 o'clock today and his punishment fixed at life imprisonment.
The verdict was announced without demonstration being made.The case, sent here from Knox County on change of venue, had consumed more than a week. The jury, which received the case at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was delayed in its deliberations because of the illness of W. C. Byars, a juror, who was attended by a physician.Judge B. J. Bethune adjourned court yesterday afternoon until 9 o'clock this morning and comparatively few spectators were in the courtroom when the jury reported, as a verdict had not been expected so soon.Special Bailiff McKinney, appointed to serve in the case after the prosecution last week swore Sheriff Tip Langford off because of alleged bias in favor of the defendant, had Bailey brought into court guarded by a detail of soldiers of Troop B. London, on duty here throughout the trial to preserve order and avert a clash of the two factions.No one was allowed to enter or leave the courtroom after the defendant had been brought in from the jail.The Baileys left here this afternoon.The prisoner, guarded by Special Bailiff McKinney, Maj. James K.
Dillon and five other soldiers, was taken to Danville for safekeeping.
His attorneys had filed a motion for a new trial.Soldiers will remain until members of the Bailey, Lee and White families have left Mt. Vernon. Several shootings and killings followed the slaying of Beverly White by John Bailey.CHIEF JUSTICE TAFT URGES APPOINTMENT OF 18 NEW FEDERAL JUDGESCincinnati, O., Aug. 31.—Appointment of eighteen new federal judges two for each district in the United States to take care of the increased business of the courts, was urged before members of the judicial section of the American Bar association this afternoon by William Howard Taft, chief justice of the su-preme court of the United States. A bill for their appointment has been recommended to the president and congress by Attorney General Daugherty, the chief justice said.
The new judges would be appointed for life and would be assigned to any district where they were needed to clear up the docket, Chief Justice Taft said. An important feature of the bill he said, was provision for an annual meeting of the chief justice, the senior circuit judges and the attorney general, to consider required reports with a view to disposing of business in districts where business was in arrears as to interfere with the usefulness of the courts.TWO-AND-A-HALF YEAR-OLD CHILD JUGGEDJoseph, two-and-a-half-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Witherspoon, created a scare in his family a day or two ago, and had a narrow escape from injury.The child followed his mother out into a storage room and sat on the open mouth of a six gallon stone jar. The youngster slipped down until only his head and feet were sticking out at the top. Mrs. Witherspoon heard his cries, but at first couldn't locate him.Finally when he was discovered he had gotten to the point where he could not make himself heard at all.
Mrs. Witherspoon could not pull the child out of the jar, but she rescued him by breaking the jar. The youngster got all right in a short time.—Hopkinsville New Era.

MORAL HENS

A young married woman who moved into the country considered the keeping or hens a pleasant and profitable undertaking. As she grew more absorbed in the pursuit her enthusiasm increased.During one of her animated descriptions of her success a friend inquired:

"Are your hens good laying eggs?"

"Oh, yes," she replied in a delightful tone; "they haven't laid a bad egg yet!"

The Hartford Republican's attempts to account for the present hard times are, to say the least, diverting. Its diagnosis seems to be un-employment and profiteering. Right so far, but we opine there is a deeper cause of the disease which is eating at the vitals of business. Maybe it is due to the same thing which necessitated the opening of "soup houses" and the maintenance of "bread lines" under the administration of Grover Cleveland? Then the G. O. P. "statesmen" laid it on the party in power. No, we are not so narrow as to make such a claim, but we sincerely believe, with many of the best informed members of both parties, that much of the present unrest and business depression, which always follow a great war, could have been avoided and can yet be ameliorated by a broad-minded national policy, at home and abroad. Is it profiteering that drags us down? What has Congress or the Department of Justice done to curb it? Is it high taxes? How does the new tax law help? By relieving the rich? Or is it the falling off in foreign trade? Why be surprised at that? It is the logical result of a high protective tariff. Perhaps the depression of agriculture is to blame? Congress had a chance to help the farmer to bear his burden, but booted it away and instead approved a scheme of high finance intended to keep the producers of agricultural products under the control of profiteering financiers. The only crumb of comfort was the pitifully small sum advanced for the aid of the co-operative marketing of certain products. Our prosperity is in the hands of an overwhelming majority. It has a most solemn responsibility. Let us hope it will, after having "rested" until Sept. 21, really get down to business and give the country relief, as far as is humanly possible, from its pressing weight of business stagnation.

The voice of the Wilson-hater is still heard in the land. Our esteemed contemporary up the way treated the public last week to a choice bit of invective against the recent Democratic national administration, somewhat in the nature of a "swan-song," on the eve of his temporary relinquishment of editorial pen-pushing to his ever-ready substitute. If he had read the text of the Harding-Hughes Wirth treaty, just recently "Made in Germany," he would not, we are sure, have left such a legacy of misinformation and erroneous views for his successor to try to bolster up.

The separate treaty, secretly negotiated with Germany, is one of the most amazing documents ever penned throughout our diplomatic history. It consists of two phases—a re-affirmance of the phraseology of the Congressional peace resolution, approved July 2, and the adoption of all the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles which safeguard American financial rights, but specifically excepting the League of Nations and all provisions looking toward the participation of the United States in international affairs. The treaty is so innocuous it is childish. The spectacle of leading jurists and diplomats solemnly adopting as a part of a new treaty the principal provisions of another un-ratified treaty, which was not ratified simply because it was sponsored by the opposing political party, is pitiful. The new treaty even goes so far as to provide for the future acceptance by this government of the much-battered League. The door is left open for its ultimate adoption.

Thus closer and closer the present Administration comes to the full acceptance of the policy of that much-maligned statesman, Woodrow Wilson.

The negro Republicans of Christian county are disgruntled because of the fact that they have been denied participation in the management of their party. Similar walls of disappointment come from Jefferson County. If reports are true as to the action of the Republican Executive Committee here a week ago last Saturday, their colored "brethren and sisters" of the good old county of Ohio have no such grievance. What about it Chairman Fluke or Editor "Jeems" Henry? Yes or No?

CAPITOL CULLINGS

The separate peace treaty negotiated by a sole representative of this government, acting under instructions from the State Department, will be submitted to the Senate as soon as Congress reconvenes September 21. Senator Lodge as Chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations will, of course, have charge of it. This is the same Mr. Lodge who said during the Democratic administration that a separate peace with Germany would brand us with everlasting dishonor. He is the same Mr. Lodge who said at the time it was feared the Spanish-American treaty would fail of ratification that the President of the United States could not be sent across the water in the person of his Ambassador, hat in hand, to say to Spain that we were sorry we won the war, and to negotiate for a new treaty.

INDEPENDENT ANNOUNCEMENT

We are authorized to announce V. C. GARY
an Independent candidate for Magistrate in Rosine District, No. 7.
Election Nov. 8, 1921.

A SANE GOLFER.

"Well, I've at least reached the point where I think I shall be able to get a little comfort out of golf."
"That so? Mastered the swing, have you?"
"Not at all, I've just brought myself, after five years of disappointment, to the conclusion that I am never going to be amateur champion. From now on I shall try to enjoy breaking one hundred now and then."

Taking the Joy Out of Life.
"This landlord says he will rent apartments to couples with children."
"Have you seen his apartments?"
"No."
"The walls are finished in the darkest colors and the fixtures are practically indestructible. It would be inhuman to confine children in a place where not even a finger mark would show."

Realism.
Dill—"I tell you that realism, even in the movies, can be carried too far."
Pickle—"In what way?"
Dill—"Why, just the other day I attended a show where one scene showed the collection plate being passed in church and the next minute I caught myself in the act of sneaking out."—Judge.

TO THE POINT
"You wouldn't marry me for my money, would you, Miss Seeker?"
"Not if I could get it without marrying you I assure you."

Vocational Verses.
The dentist's job is rather queer,
He pulls, mid many a groan,
The teeth of others to obtain Employment for his own.

Can't Prove It.
Yeast—It is said if the heat and muscular effort expended by the average man in a day could be converted into electrical energy it would be sufficient to run a sewing machine motor for 100 hours.
Crimsonbeak—Then why in thunder can't the average man crank a flivver more speedily?

Elemental Requirements.
"Many people refuse to listen to a trained intellect and yet believe anything a ouija board says."
"The ouija board," replied Senator Sorghum, "has an advantage that few orators enjoy. It invariably has the sympathy of its audience and speaks slowly and distinctly."

FARM EXTRACTS

INFORMATION FROM THE EXPERIMENT STATION — AGRICULTURAL PAPERS AND THE COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

Union County Culls Fall To Lay An Egg

Twenty-one hens removed from the flock of C. B. Oglesby, Boxville, Union County, in a demonstration conducted by County Agent A. M. Allen and specialists from the College of Agriculture, failed to produce an egg during the week following their removal, according to a report just made on the demonstration. The week before the demonstration the entire flock of 50 White Wyandotte hens produced 61 eggs while the week following, the 29 that were retained as layers produced a total of 58 eggs. Hens that have stopped laying to loaf until spring make it possible for their owners to distinguish them by their early moulting, according to the poultry specialists who are conducting the demonstrations to show poultry raisers what points to look for in culling the flock.

New Circular Out On Apple-Bud Worm

A new circular prepared by Harrison Garman, entomologist at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station and dealing with a description of a bud-worm reported to have infested apple trees in Ohio county is ready for distribution to interested farmers of the State. The insect has been known to attack apple and other fruit trees but has not been given attention in the published accounts of fruit insects as a bud eater, according to Mr. Garman. Its injuries of this nature appear to be more serious than those it does later to the leaves but have apparently been largely overlooked. The circular which is No. 25 may be obtained free from the station at Lexington.

Oldham Farmers See Culling Methods

More than 135 Oldham county farmers were recently shown the proper method of culling their poultry flocks by attending eight demonstrations held by County Agent Gordon B. Nance in co-operation with the extension division of the College of Agriculture. The attendance at the various demonstrations which were held in different communities of the county ranged from seven to 35 poultry raisers and averaged about 16. As a result of the culling work a number of farmers and poultrymen in the county are expected to cull their flocks to eliminate the hens that have stopped laying.

Field Selected Seed Yields More Corn

Practically all experiment stations in corn-growing states as well as scores of farmers in every state have shown by actual tests that field-selected corn given proper care after gathering gives highly profitable increases in yield over ordinary unselected seed, according to E. J. Kinney, crops specialist at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station. The increased yields due to selected seed vary from year to year, being greatest when the ordinary crop is late in maturing and subject to hard freezing before thoroughly dry. As has been pointed out, the germination of corn containing a large percentage of moisture may be partially or even entirely destroyed by hard freezing. Even when the germination is apparently good a large percentage of the plants may be weak and subject to insect and disease attacks. Corn gathered early from healthy, vigorous stalks and stored so that it may dry quickly gives seed that germinates promptly and produces strong, healthy plants, the specialist said.

Field selection is better than selection at husking time for several reasons. In the first place it permits the farmer to select a type of plant that most nearly meets the ideal of the corn which he is growing as regards the size of stalk, position of the ear on the stalk and the type of husk. In the second place it permits the selection of seed ears from plants most free from disease. Recent investigations have shown that corn diseases, especially root rot, takes a tremendous toll and that field selection is one way to get seed most free from disease. The corn selected should be from stalks that mature normally or that are still alive when the corn ripens. One evidence of disease is premature dying of the stalk with the result that rough, chaffy ears are produced.

Selection, important as it is, however, is only one-half the job. Drying the corn promptly is even more important for seed selected with the greatest care may give unsatisfactory results if given improper care. Drying the ears by hanging them in a well-ventilated barn where mice cannot get to them is usually the most satisfactory on the average farm where there are few mouse-proof places.

Farm and Home News From Over Kentucky

Following good results obtained in other years, P. B. and R. S. Austin, Webster County farmers, are planning to fatten their hogs for the market by hogging down corn and soybeans this fall. The work will be conducted as a demonstration by the two farmers who are co-operating with County Agent Lloyd E. Cutler.

Seven boys are now candidates for the team to represent McCracken County in the junior livestock judging contest to be held at the State Fair, September 14, under the direction of the College of Agriculture, according to a report of County Agent J. R. Bird.

Purebred animals are replacing scrub stock on many Graves County farms, according to a report of County Agent B. H. Mitchell. R. T. Ligon and W. L. Thurmond have been the latest farmers to join the movement for better stock, these two purchasing purebred hogs.

The first car of sheep to be shipped co-operatively by the McCracken County Sheep Breeders' Association brought the top price on the Louisville market, according to County Agent J. R. Bird, who co-operated with the farmers in forming the organization.

Visits to prominent stock farms in the county for the purpose of practicing judging different classes of livestock is furnishing the chief training for the Carroll county junior livestock judging team. The team which is being trained under the direction of County Agent G. C. Rountt and Assistant County Agent R. M. Green will enter the junior judging contest to be held under the direction of the College of Agriculture at the State Fair, Sept. 14.

The highest-price ram sold at the recent sheep sale held under the direction of the Livestock Exchange at Louisville was purchased by an Oldham County farmer and is expected to play an important part in improving the sheep in that county, according to a report of County Agent Gordon B. Nance.

Barred Rocks Lead In State Egg Race

Sixteen Barred Plymouth Rock hens owned by Mrs. W. O. Kirk, Philpot, lead the State's 47 demonstration flocks in July egg production with an average record of 18.8 eggs a hen, according to an announcement by J. H. Martin, in charge of the College of Agriculture poultry work. A Kenton County flock was second on the list, 344 White Leghorns owned by Mrs. J. A. Anderson, Covington, having an average record of 16 eggs a hen for the month. Thirty-six White Plymouth Rock hens composing the flock of J. C. Greer, Lucas, was third on the list with a record of 15.8 eggs a hen.

The remaining flocks among the ten highest producing ones together with their owners and average production were as follows:

Fifty-eight White Leghorns, Jacob Klingentus, Jeffersontown, 14.9 eggs; 80 White Wyandottes, Mrs. J. T. Wilson, Corydon, 14.4 eggs; 126 White Leghorns, Mrs. S. J. Howard, Henderson, 13.5 eggs; 31 White Plymouth Rocks, Mrs. F. D. Stapleford, Buckner, 13.3 eggs; 56 White Wyandottes, Mrs. J. A. Kern, Jeffersontown, 13.1 eggs; 268 White Leghorns, Mrs. Charles Brentlinger, Buetcher, 12.8 eggs; 54 Barred Plymouth Rocks, Mrs. Lewis Lebus, Cynthia, 11.1 eggs.

Two New Circulars Ready For Farmers

Two new circulars are ready for distribution from the College of Agriculture, the first No. 109, being a discussion of the life histories and controls for tobacco and potato flea beetles and the second, No. 25, being a description and discussion of an apple-bud worm reported to have infested trees in certain parts of the State. The insect has been known to attack apple and other fruit trees but has not been given attention in the published accounts of fruit insects as a bud eater. Both circulars were written by Harrison Garman, entomologist at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station. They may be obtained free by writing the station at Lexington.

RECALLS IDIOSYNCRASIES OF KENTUCKY GENIUS

Writing to the Albany New Era, Mrs. S. A. Davidson of Chanut, Tenn., a relative of the late Spencer Dabney, one of the most pronounced characters this State ever knew, recalls something of his oddities and his early life in Albany, where Dabney, a saddlemaker, formerly had his shop. Spence Dabney was a striking figure, a splendid-appearing man and of remarkably distinguished looks when his six feet of stature were attired in his best clothes. Mrs. Davidson writes:

The way he got to be a lawyer is a good story. He was one night playing poker with Judge Pount Fox, Mike Owsley, Sam Boles and John Sandridge at Russell Springs. For a joke Owsley told Fox that Dabney, then a very young man, was there to be examined touching his learning in the profession of Coke and Blackstone. Fox answered: "Dabney, you look like a lawyer, you play poker like a lawyer and I'll be hanged if I don't make you a lawyer," which he did on the spot.

Spence moved to Lebanon, where Proctor Knott subsequently lived, and opened a law office. The boys elected him Justice of the Peace and his library was the Revised Statutes, the Code of Practice of Kentucky and the Farmers' Almanac. It was asserted that his court was noted for a maximum of dignity and a minimum of learning. He got into politics and was a candidate for State Senator. Unfortunately the presiding officer of the convention put the vote this way: "All in favor of the nomination of Colonel Dabney will rise." That beat him; though in a majority, not a Dabney delegate could stand on his pins.

I don't recall a more dashing looking man than Spencer Dabney at his best. He would have admiration, in any society. One Fourth of July the orator of the occasion was absent, and Spencer was called on to fill his place and make a Democratic stump speech and he did it capably. The audience was spellbound and hung on his words. His periods were fervid and burning and after two hours of enormous eloquence he closed in a very rhapsody of patriotic declamation. Coming down from the stand Spencer met one of his maternal uncles, who was pretty nearly as much of a wag as Spencer himself.

The old man said: "Spence I'm proud of you. Your eloquence was splendid, your presence superb, your voice rich, resonant and musical, your gestures were grace itself, but, Spence, what you lack, is ideas. If a idea ever strikes you, I'm damned if you won't be a rouser."

AUTOMOBILE RUN BY WIRELESS IS SHOWN

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Among features of the exhibition at the National Radio show which opened here today is a tiny automobile controlled by wireless, the invention of E. F. Gray, Yonkers, N. Y. The Radio show is being held in connection with the annual convention of the Amateur Radio Operators of America, and the Radio Relay League.

Illinois Central System Shows How Taxes Have a Bearing on Railway Rates

Notwithstanding that for the past twelve months the railroads as a whole have earned almost no net return on the capital invested in them, many persons insist that freight and passenger rates be reduced, regardless of the costs of producing that transportation service which the public must have. We wish, therefore, to direct attention to the fact that the costs of producing transportation are still relatively much higher than the rates. We think it fair to ask the public to give consideration to what the railroads are having to pay for labor, materials, locomotives, fuel, cars, taxes and interest on borrowed capital before passing final judgment upon the reasonableness of present freight and passenger rates.

It is true that, effective July 1, railway wages were reduced 12 per cent, but they are still 108 per cent higher than they were in 1914—the year of the beginning of the great war which upset everything. Road locomotives cost 123 per cent more, switch engines cost 144 per cent more, gondola cars cost 117 per cent more, refrigerator cars cost 107 per cent more, box cars cost 122 per cent more, steel passenger coaches cost 100 per cent more and locomotive fuel costs 138 per cent more at present than in 1914. The Illinois Central System sold bonds in 1914 on a basis yielding less than 5 per cent to the purchasers. It recently sold $3,000,000 of bonds running for fifteen years, and the best terms it was able to secure yielded a return of more than 7 per cent to the purchasers.

Take the single item of direct taxes for a ten-year period. The Class I railroads, which include all railroads having gross operating incomes of $1,000,000 or more annually, paid $98,626,848 in taxes in 1911. In 1920 the same railroads paid $278,868,668 in taxes, an increase of $180,241,820, or 183 per cent.

The Illinois Central System paid $3,278,107.96 in taxes in 1911, while in 1920 it paid $9,575,680.87, an increase of $6,297,572.91, or 192 per cent.

But these are not the only taxes affecting transportation charges. When the shipper pays his freight bill, he should remember that 3 per cent of what the railroad's bill otherwise would be is added and collected by the railroad as a transportation tax. Likewise, when the passenger pays for his ticket, he should remember that 8 per cent of what he otherwise would pay the railroad is added and collected for the government as a transportation tax. Patrons generally consider only the total cost of freight and passenger transportation, and many think the railroads get the whole amount.

The transportation tax collected by the railroads for the government on freight bills in 1920 totaled $129,710,329.80, and on passenger fares, $103,099,633.36—a grand total of $232,809,963.16! This vast sum is not included in any of the railway accounts. It was collected by the railroads acting as agents for the government and remitted directly to the government.

As the agent of the government the Illinois Central System collected from its patrons in 1920 the sum of $3,084,072.54 as transportation tax on freight, and $2,254,256.87 as transportation tax on passenger fares, a total of $5,338,329.41! This is not included in the above mentioned item of $9,575,680.87 direct taxes paid, but was collected and remitted directly to the government.

The question of abolishing the transportation tax is having consideration at Washington. The abolition of this tax would reduce railway rates without injury to the railroads.

We do not bring up the question of railway taxation in a spirit of complaint. We realize that all citizens and all businesses must bear their just proportion of the express of government. We refer to the matter just now to make it clear that railway taxation must be added to the cost of transportation and necessarily has a bearing on freight and passenger rates.

The Illinois Central System has been striving for more than a year to present facts in regard to railway problems for the consideration of the public. The public will be able to decide for itself the advisability of such a course when it considers that the management of the Illinois Central System is the trustee of an investment in roadway and equipment of more than a half billion dollars. We realize that this property, and all railway property, will be dealt with accordingly as public sentiment develops and crystallizes. We feel, therefore, that we must present our case before the court of public opinion, and we are glad to do that, having an abiding faith in the fairness and justice of the people when they have the facts before them.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

C. H. MARKHAM,
President, Illinois Central System.

WASHINGTON NEWS

Washington, Sept. 3.—"Home Sweet Home" will have few charms for many Republican members of Congress during the present recess until September 21, because those who have had the courage to go home know that they must face large numbers of irate constituents (and Gosh, how they dread it!) who will demand explanations concerning the votes they have cast during the first part of the extra session.

Voters' Questionnaire To Republican Congressmen

Why did you vote for the hodge-podge Fordney Tariff Bill which protects only the manufacturers and the profiteering manufacturers most of all, at the expense of agriculture and all other natural industries?

Why did you vote to relieve 20,000 persons, mostly war profiteers, of excess profits tax and individual income surtaxes amounting to an average tax of $30,000 a year, and add an average tax of $600 a year to 20,000 small producing corporations?

Why did you vote to take $17,000,000 taxes off the express companies and not relieve the parcels post from the same sort of tax?

Why did you, after the Soldiers' Bonus bill had been killed in the Senate at the dictation of President Harding on the statement that the Government could not afford it, then vote $500,000,000 to the railroads which already owed the Government $731,000,000?

Why did you vote to cut down the appropriations for good roads in all the states from $100,000,000 to $75,000,000 with 5,735,000 persons out of work, and then vote appropriations of nearly a billion dollars for Army and Navy with a disarmament conference practically assured?

Why did you pretend to be in favor of economy and then vote $48,500,000 to the Shipping Board out of which to pay officials employed or invited to be employed, at salaries of $35,000 a year each, $25,000, $20,000, $15,000 and $10,000 among them attorneys alleged to be members of firms with claims against the Shipping Board?

Why do you blame the alleged mismanagement in the Shipping Board upon Democrats when the Chairmen of the Shipping Board during its period of greatest activity were Charles M. Schwab, a Republican and Charles Piez, also a Republican, and J. H. Rosseter, Director of Operations, also a Republican, and all three contributors to Republican campaign funds?

Why did you vote for the gag rule and steam-roller methods under which you passed the tariff and tax bills, cutting off debate and preventing amendments except by members of the committee?

Why did you vote to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to increase certificates of indebtedness $500,000,000 to provide for a deficit in revenues from the tariff and tax bills, while pretending that the bills would supply the needed revenue?

What single vote have you cast that has resulted in any relief to business men, to farmers, to labor, to any industry except protected manufacturers, to the improvement of conditions of living among your fellow-citizens or that redounds to the honor of your country?

What has Congress accomplished in the four months and two weeks it has been in session? Do you know of any one thing completed from which any one has derived any benefit as a result of Congressional action?

The Lasker Shipping Board Scandal

The Shipping Board scandal got a good airing in the Senate just prior to the recess adjournment—not the old charges of extravagance and waste while the war was on, war itself being extravagance and waste of everything—but the new scandal of the Lasker administration, which is seeking to employ two men at $35,000 each and one at $25,000 in the operations department, and a from $25,000 down to $10,000 and host of lawyers at salaries ranging others at slightly less.

President Harding approved the Lasker plan in writing.

The character and nature of this employment was thoroughly exposed by Senator Harrison (Dem., Miss.), who showed that some of the men to be employed at large salaries had recently been employed in government departments at comparatively small salaries.

Senator King (Dem., Utah), pointed out that some great law firms in New York made it a practice to employ young men who have secret information obtained as employees in government departments and then utilize that information against the government.

"Reprensible as that is, that is not the worst story of the controversy," said Senator Harrison. "The facts are disclosed here that practically every man who is an attorney in the legal department under Mr. Lasker came in on the recommendation of some big law firm in New York, some of whom have cases against the Shipping Board."

Senator Harrison read testimony of Mr. Schlessinger, head of the legal department of the Board, that he had offered one lawyer $25,000, but the lawyer was holding off because there were some things he wanted to talk over. He then testifies that this lawyer's firm has 200 cases against the Shipping Board.

MINGO WAR RENEWED

U. S. TO SEND TROOPS

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 1.—Brig. Gen. H. H. Bandholtz early this morning announced that he had sent a telegram to the War Department requesting that Federal troops be sent into West Virginia at once.

General Bandholtz's announcement follows:

"I am satisfied the miners will not obey the President's proclamation. I have dispatched a telegram to Washington requesting that Federal troops be sent into West Virginia immediately."

General Bandholtz's decision was reached after he had listened to a report made by Col. Stanley H. Ford and Maj. C. H. Thompson, who late last night returned from a trip along the Boone-Logan County line.

General Bandholtz, when questioned as to when the President's proclamation of martial law would be promulgated, replied he could not state the exact hour, but expressed the view it would be promulgated immediately after receipt of his telegram at the War Department.

MARTIAL LAW IN BELFAST AFTER STREET RIOTING

Belfast, Aug. 31.—The military, it was announced at midday, will assume control of Belfast within an hour as a result of representations by the Lord Mayor as to the urgent necessity of affording the city protection in view of the fierce rioting and fighting in progress.

By mid-afternoon, with the fighting still proceeding in some areas between the Ulster Loyalists and Sinn Feiners, the total death roll since Monday night had reached fourteen. Scores have been wounded, but the exact number is not known.

Early today Sir William Coates, the Lord Mayor, made strong representations to General Carter-Campbell, commanding the British troops in Ulster, and Chief of Police Gelston concerning the need for protection of the city's citizens. Last night Ulster special constabulary, nearly all former soldiers, were in action in the Stanhope-street area. Sniping is carried out on the most approved lines, field glasses being used by the snipers.

Fierce revolver fighting between Ulster Loyalists and Sinn Feiners continued here this morning, causing scenes of the wildest excitement in some of the city's main thoroughfares. Another man was killed at 8 o'clock, making the total dead up to the present nine.

COBBLER CLOSE TO COOLIDGE

Town Shoe Repairer, "Friend, Philosopher and Guide" of Vice President.

HELPS TO SHAPE HIS CAREER

Friendship Begun in College Days Continues Through Early Struggles and Subsequent Prominence in Politics.

Northampton, Mass.—James Lucey, mender of shoes, is pegging away in his shop here with one eye on the newspapers for word of how the national capital treats Calvin Coolidge, his one-time associate in local politics, and now vice president.

When Vice President Coolidge, just before departing for Washington recently, grasped the cobbler's hand as the photographers snapped their cameras, he gave him a distinction that he was asked to explain. "Put Mr. Lucey down as my guide, philosopher and friend," he said. And so the cobbler is now nationally known.

What the vice president meant was more or less well known to Northampton folk. The story goes back to the days when Calvin Coolidge was a sophomore at Amherst college. With shoes to be repaired he sought Lucey's shop on Gothic street in this city, and then remained to listen to the cobbler's homely comments on the topics of the day.

Helped to Shape Career.

The student found the shoemaker's philosophy so engaging that during the remainder of his college course he went frequently to see him. As a lawyer later young Coolidge opened offices here, and while he waited for clients, continued his acquaintance with the cobbler. Throughout his career in the politics of the city and state, Mr. Coolidge dropped in at the shoe shop from time to time to exchange ideas with his friend and have the benefit of the latter's pointed political observations.

The youthful Coolidge took away lessons from the cobbler counselor; Coolidge, the candidate, received the benefit of his influence, which was considerable in city politics, and when he rose to a position of state and national prominence he still received the loyal support of the shoe man.

Mr. Lucey, modestly explaining that Mr. Coolidge long since passed out of his range of influence, admits that he may have been of some help when the vice president was on the first rungs of the political ladder.

Cement Closer Friendship.

The cobbler says that the only time he ever crossed Calvin Coolidge seemed to make firmer the friendship between them. Mr. Coolidge had sought the election of a friend as mayor, and asked Mr. Lucey as a delegate to the party caucus to stand in his behalf, but the cobbler, already bound to the opposing candidate, refused. This evidence of loyalty to a prior allegiance served to heighten their mutual respect.

The shoemaker, a native of Ireland, came to Northampton forty years ago at the age of twelve. A family of eight children, seven of whom are now living, has made demands on his earning ability. Five are girls, one is a stenographer, two are teachers, a fourth, who was formerly a teacher, is now married and one is a clerk. Of the two boys one is a graduate of Holy Cross college, and the other is a student in the Northampton Commercial college.

9,211,295 AUTOS IN COUNTRY

License Fees in 1920 Totaled $102,834,106, Reports Federal Bureau of Public Roads.

Washington.—Motor cars registered in the United States last year numbered 9,211,295, an increase of 1,645,849 over the preceding year of 22 per cent, the bureau of public roads announced.

The registration and license fees amounted to $102,834,106.

In New York state alone the number of cars registered in 1920 exceeded the total registration for the United States in 1910, and the revenue derived in that state from this source was about equal to the entire registration revenues of the United States in 1913. Ninety-six per cent of the 1920 revenue was applied to road maintenance or construction.

Alice Has a Pheasant.

Tiffin, O.—A pheasant duplicating the historic stunt of Mary's lamb is attracting attention here. Each day a pheasant makes its appearance east of Melmore and meets Alice Grummel, ten years of age. After a few flutters to express its joy at the meeting, the bird gravely walks with her to school. Sometimes the pheasant flies part of the way and again will perch on its little friend's shoulder and ride. The pheasant first appeared three weeks ago and, under encouragement of a few crumbs, has repeated the walk each day.

Ex-Admiral Sixty-Eight, Cobbler's Aid. Vienna.—With former officers of the army and navy as pupils, a shoemaking school has been opened here.

Among the students is a former vice admiral, sixty-eight years old, who is enrolled as a cobbler's apprentice and carries his union card.

BIDWELL—HOOVER

Miss Elsie Bidwell and Mr. Edward Hoover were united in matrimony at the residence of the bride's parents in Beda, at 10 a. m., Monday, Rev. Boyd Browning performing the ceremony. After the wedding the couple repaired to the home of the groom's mother, where a sumptuous dinner was served. They will reside in Cincinnati, Ohio, where the groom will re-enter school.

The bride is a beautiful, popular and accomplished young lady and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand B. Bidwell. The groom is an industrious young man. While serving in the World War he was the hero of many daring acts and was several times wounded.

Some author has said "None but the brave deserve the fair" and to this we would add "None but the fair deserve the brave" as both maxims were followed in this marriage. Here's wishing them nothing but happiness and success as they journey through life together.
